

Navigating Neurodiversity: A Mentor's Guide to Autism and ADHD

May 29, 2024
12-1:30pm
Zoom

This workshop will provide mentors with an overview of Autism and ADHD, providing knowledge about the experiences of neurodivergent mentees and strategies to help mentees succeed. Participants will learn suggested terminology, tools, and approaches to maximize mentee success. Disability Management Services and the Student Disability Center will provide information for making referrals and available accommodations for students and employees.

Speakers Include:

- Nathalie Moriarty: PhD student in Psychology and President of the Aggie Neurodiversity Community
- Julie Schweitzer, Ph.D.: Director of Mentoring Academy for Research Excellence and Professor of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences and MIND Institute
- J. Faye Dixon, Ph.D.: Associate Director of Mentoring Academy for Research Excellence and Professor of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences and MIND Institute
- Elizabeth Sturdy: Director of Mentoring and Academic Success Initiatives, Graduate Studies
- Yakira Alston: Disability Management Services Supervisor, Disability Management Services
- Roslyn Lopez: Disability Management Coordinator, Disability Management Services
- Emily Furukawa: Disability Specialist, Student Disability Center

To Register

Scan Here

